- Improve teaching method by presenting the essence the Biomagnetic Pair.
- Apply new and more precise technologies and insight to the development of the Biomagnetic Pair.

OBJECTIVES
- Train therapists so they become proficient in the Biomagnetic Pair technique with a new perspective that focuses on the health-disease relationship.
- Understand the mechanisms used in the Biomagnetic Pair technique in both levels, Biomagnetism and Bioenergetics.
- Complete the correct Level 1 and Level 2 scans during the student practices.

INTRODUCTION
The Biomagnetic Pair (BP) is a therapeutic technique developed by the Mexican scientist Dr. Isaac Goiz Durán more than 26 years ago. The technique focuses on eliminating the root causes of a disease, those that exacerbate it or impede rehabilitation of the patient. This is done through the application of permanent artificial magnets in different parts of the body that are in “Biomagnetic Resonance” and by adhering to the methodology prescribed by the discoverer of this technique. With this technique it is possible to treat many ailments including contagious infectious, chronic degenerative, metabolic, dysfunctional, autoimmune, psycho-emotional and tumoral diseases, as well as poisonings. The implementation of the technique reduces clinical symptoms, rehabilitates different functions of the body and reestablishes the person’s health and wellbeing. The result in many cases is a clinical improvement in the patient’s condition, without experiencing the side effects of conventional treatments, drug poisoning due to overdoses or anaphylaxis, antimicrobial resistance. It also helps reduce the risk of infection, hemorrhages or surgery complications, as well as reducing hospital stays, recovery time and rehabilitation. The Biomagnetic Pair is a simple technique that anyone can perform and that should be learned from first hand sources, so that the knowledge and information acquired can be applied properly for the good of all people.

COURSE DESCRIPTION (LEVEL 2)

By understanding a disease from an energetic and/or vibrational point of view we can comprehend the pathology more in depth which in turn will help us provide the patient better physical, mental and emotional health and well-being. This course will help the therapist improve his or her abilities when practicing Biomagnetism and help improve their daily work.

Dr. Isaac Goiz Durán’s Level 2 course consists of 15 hours of instruction by him, after which time a guest speaker is invited to give the presentations. This is done in accordance with the requirements of many universities where the course is offered in order to fulfill education goals and credit hour accrual needed by students. Therefore other subjects are covered during course, including Anatomy, Biochemistry, Physiology, Microbiology and Lab Studies, to name a few. Occasionally, Dr. David Goiz Martinez will attend and give a presentation.

The Biomagnetic Pair technique is a type of integrative medicine that does not interfere with any other practices in medicine, does not cause side effects, is not subject to minimum effective dose, maximum lethal doses, it is easy to apply, cost effective and anyone can learn to administer the therapy. There’s no doubt this therapy is the best option for anyone looking to work in the area of health care.
